MESSAGE OF THE HON'BLE CHAIRMAN

It gives me an immense pleasure to write this message that, Greater Noida College of Law (GNCL), Greater Noida is bringing out the 1st edition of its newsletter “CAMPUS CHRONICLES”.

The faculty members and the students have endeavored to capture the memories of Accomplishments and moments of success and present them through this newsletter.

Such efforts are an affirmation to the fact that values of the faculty members of GNCL are deep rooted. They not only cherish the happenings of the school but also celebrate the successes of their fellow colleagues in and around the campus. It is emboldening to see that along with the best academic additions, GNCL has ensured to put priority on inculcating valuable virtues and traits, such as, intuition, creativity, flexibility, instinct, collaboration and immense dedication with the highest command of behavioural conduct among the law students. It is through these standards; law students develop an independent and unique identity for themselves and succeed in their career of law both nationally and globally. It gives me immense joy and satisfaction to observe that our vibrant and brilliant students conduct large number of events with their immense interest and involvement either in organizing them or through their participation.

I admire and appreciate the hard work and dedication put forward by the editorial team of “CAMPUS CHRONICLES” and also the contributions made by the students and alumni of GNCL, for successfully working out this valuable publication.

I am confident that this publication will be a great source of encouragement, inspiration and enrichment and will be a framework of knowledge acquisition for the young budding lawyers aspiring to be a distinguished legal professional in their career.
